Volume Three - Games People Play

- MATCHBOX HUSTLE -- Spectators cannot keep track of the box with the matches in it, then money
- SHAPE SHIFTERS -- Two different colored, and different shaped, pieces of tissue are torn and restored, but the shapes have switched places.
- ROCK, SCISSORS, PAPER -- The spectators cut through a strip of paper somehow always avoiding the pictures of rocks on it.
- SLUDGE AND ICE -- An oil and water separation played like a game with red circles and black crosses.
- MICRO-MORPHOSIS -- Two little wooden dolls painted to look like a male and female magical duo change places in a series of baffling exchanges.
- WHAT'S THE POINT -- A game show in which the magician discovers which prizes have been secretly chosen by the contestants.
- IRONY OF THE ARTS -- Revelation of a card using letters from a game of Scrabble. Uses ordinary letters and is impromptu.
- CLUE ME IN -- The magician predicts which person, weapon, and room will be chosen from the board game Clue. Uses an ordinary game and is entirely impromptu.
- MONEY IN CARDS -- The magician and two spectators choose cards face up for a game of blackjack. Each is a winner as the magician produces money from between each pair of cards.
