

Ultimate Card Insertion by Brian Kennedy And Leon Andersen - Video DOWNLOAD

One of magic's biggest illusions is brought to the close up stage.

A card is selected. It is signed by both the magician and spectator. The card is put into the card box. The spectator chooses to random cards. One by one the cards are pushed through the card box. The box can be shown from all angles. Now for the kicker, one by one the doors are opened on the card box showing the SIGNED card inside. The box is then closed up and one by one the cards are taking out. The box is opened up and the signed card is taken out and shown to be unharmed and can be kept by the spectator.

"Ha ha ha, that's brilliant, a close up stage illusion! Love it!"

- Chris Congreave

"That is wicked clever! A totally fooling illusion!"

- Cameron Francis

"Brian Kennedy is a name to watch out for! Brian uses diabolical 'out of the box' thinking to create stunning magic, UCI is just one example of his very clever thinking and routining!"

- Gary Jones

"WTF! How the hell is that done? A workers dream !!!!!"

- Mark Cullen

"I've been a working magician about 10 years and I've seen a lot of tricks. This fooled me badly and it's a worker, get it!"

- Carl Campbell

"Brian has put together a gem here. The moment here the card box is exposed to show the sign card inside, impaled by the two cards is a perfect illusion!"

- John Carey

- Easy to do
- Instantly resets
- Fully self contained

- Multiple routines
- No sleight of hand required
- Perform surrounded
- Extremely visual
- Spectator can Put the cards through