

At the Table Live Lecture - Marcus Eddie 7/2/2014 - video DOWNLOAD

Marcus Eddie: Marcus Eddie will fool you. Simple as that. If visual close-up magic is your thing, you definitely want to check out this lecture. Filled with jaw dropping effects that utilize MORE than just playing cards, Marcus will take you on a journey into his super funky-jazzy-style of magic. He adds a unique touch into his magic that is both visually appealing, and precisely fine-tuned and well crafted. Oh, did I mention that this is a close up lecture that DOESN'T focus on cards? Check out what Marcus will cover:

Fresh: Instantly refill an empty breath strip container.

Something Borrowed: Link and unlink a borrowed ring or key on a key tag.

Paper Cut: Two borrowed bills melt through each other. No gimmicks!

Focus: Magically repair Eye glass/shades.

Color Band: Visually change the color of a rubber band.

Separation: A shuffled deck magically separates itself, the blacks from the reds.

Reconnect: Any card is clearly seen and heard to be ripped, then restored with just a touch.

Post Predict: Predict choices with this utility system, featured in a new 'Mental Epic' style routine with different color sticky note pads.

Jumbo Spellbound: Marcus shows you his inner workings on jumbo coin magic.
