

At the Table Live Lecture - Chris Korn 11/12/2014 - video DOWNLOAD

Chris Korn is a name that the magic community has known for quite some time. He is very well respected and has dropped the jaws of some of Hollywood's biggest names including Brad Pitt, JJ Abrams, Alec Baldwin and Ari Gold himself, Jermeý Piven.

What makes Chris a pro? He has performed for audiences in over 20 different countries around the world, and over 100 cities across the US of A. He also had his own TV special on A&E titled, Mondo Magic, where he entertained over 74 million viewers worldwide.

From playing cards, to coins, to whatever Chris touches...he plans on bringing a lecture that appeals to magicians of any skill level. No matter if you are brand new to magic or a seasoned pro, there will literally be something to take away from this lecture.

Chris Korn's AT THE TABLE Live Lecture will be a different experience, as he will touch on effects that he has never lectured about, as well as cover effects that you may have already seen, but with extra handling ideas and tips from one of the most talented sleight-of-hand magicians in the world.

Chris is truly one of the most influential and creative powers within the magic community. So if you are looking to learn from a polished, experienced and true working pro, then tune in to Chris Korn's AT THE TABLE LIVE LECTURE.
