

At the Table Live Lecture - Geoff Williams 3/25/2015 - video DOWNLOAD

Comedy, conjuring and creativity all in one! Having won more than two dozen awards, Geoff Williams is as amazing as he is funny. He has lectured and performed all over the world and has fine-tuned his material to perfection over the course of three decades. From cards to coins, bottles and movie tickets, Geoff brings a bit of everything to this At the Table Experience.

Newspaper Clippings: Take several newspaper clippings out and flawlessly restore the newspaper.

Rocky Shoe: Finally a solution to what's been bothering you in your shoe! Produce not one but TWO large rocks from your shoe.

Coin in Pen Cap: This is the trick that fooled Gregory Wilson. Visually vanish a coin, hands are shown to be clean, then produce it from within a pen cap.

This One: Geoff's take on Cameron Francis' classic effect. Two spectators select a card leaving all the others blank!

Lost and Sniffed: Find a spectator's selected card by sense of smell!
