

Just One Touch by Dan Alex - eBook DOWNLOAD

The magician claims to have special powers. He calls on one of the spectators to try this experience, asks them to relax and close their eyes. He then asks them to focus on a point in their mind and imagine a finger slowly touching their face. The spectator moves their head slightly as if someone had touched their face, but everyone will see the magician never touched them!

A new way to do magic.

No hidden thread, no magnet or electronic device!
