

Manipulation with Balls from PEKI - Video DOWNLOAD

This is Peki's full fledged lecture video on manipulation with balls. It was originally released in German in 1994, but Peki has dubbed it himself in English. If you want to learn how to manipulate balls this is the video to learn it from. Keep in mind that Jeff McBride started with stage manipulation influenced from Pekis performance. PEKI won many international awards with his manipulation show. Also the German Championship, the European Championship and to times an award in the FISM World Championship.

Peki has a beautiful soft and lyrical style and reveals all his tricks and tips and ways to practice, including the various gimmicks he uses to achieve seamless transitions, wonderful color changes and other highly visual transformations. Some of the areas Peki addresses are:

- finger exercises, moves, and gimmicks
- Chicago billiard ball routine
- Chicago billiard ball routine with colored balls
- Chicago billiard ball routine without gimmicks straight from the pocket
- production of balls from a special silk
- Peki's entire routine (performance only)
- specialty balls and rare balls
