

The Saint-Exerpury Rose by Vincent Mendoza & Lost Art Magic - Video DOWNLOAD

A napkin rose by any other name does not have to look the same. Inspired by the children's classic, The Little Prince, Vincent Mendoza has worked for a many years re-engineering the simple napkin rose. Finally, a breakthrough insight allowed him to take an existing thing of beauty and craft it into a thing of art. True to the tenets found in the book, it is the time you spend on this rose that makes it unique. Never before has a rose, fashioned by hand, looked more real. Vincent goes through painstaking detail to show you all the ins and outs of this seemingly intricate design.

Now, Lost Art Magic and Vincent Mendoza are pleased to share with you the only napkin rose you will ever make: The Saint-Exupéry Rose.
