Perhaps of most value is seeing how Royle handles the audience to take them from being a noisy crowd into being right in the palm of his hand.

Dirty Trancing Volume 2

Hypno Tricks

A Christmas special at a Restaurant in Yorkshire, this video shows Royle performing for a boozy Party Crowd. Watch a true professional at work and observe how Royle gets the audience on his side and makes them keep quiet during the induction process.

You'll be amazed as you see him successfully lock together 99% of the audience's hands together and then place into trance to a greater or lesser degree everyone who volunteers to come onto the stage! Various Induction methods are shown in full and the highlight of this tape is seeing Royle perform Full Body Catalepsy on a pretty female subject.

Numerous comedy routines are also shown including the lady who falls in love with the Hypnotist and nearly performs a sexual act on him seconds before she is placed back into trance, just in the nick of time

Mind Games

Filmed at a student wine bar in Manchester this video is invaluable educational material as you will see what happens when only two people volunteer to take part and only one of these takes it seriously enough to go into trance. Royle was a surprise performer at this venue as the management had just changed and they had forgotten to advertise the show!

Under the worst circumstances you could imagine you'll see Royle perform an entire show using only one female volunteer - but what an excellent subject she becomes as Royle uses every trick in the book to get maximum response from her.

You'll also see how Royle wins the audience over and gets many of them involved in the show and if that's not enough you'll laugh your socks off at the 3-D Porno Movie Sketch, the When Harry Met Sally Orgasm routine and the moment when the female subject realises a horrible smelly pervert has just tried it on with her amongst numerous other hilarious routines

Hypnotic Party Time

Filmed at a Rugby Club venue in Warwickshire, Royle arrived at this show to discover that the concert secretary had advertised the wrong date and as such the audience consisted of only 12 people.

Despite these next to impossible performing conditions Royle manages to get almost half the audience into trance and performs a most entertaining show. If you want a true lesson in showmanship and professionalism then you must watch this video. Full of hilarious routines the camera angles on this title are such that it makes learning Royle's Inductions as easy as 1,2,3.

See the men giving birth to babies and becoming the worlds greatest strippers, then they believe they are the Village People doing the YMCA and even become sexually turned on as they rub each other's knees. You'll see how Royle makes maximum use of props, costumes and music to make each routine as hilarious as possible and how he gets volunteers to perform a show in the audience during the interval as they become a gay ash tray collector, the worlds biggest gossip or an undercover secret agent amongst many other bizarre routines.

Take a Trance on ME

Filmed at a private party in a very noisy gay friendly night-club venue Royle has to use every trick in the book to make this show work! You'll see how he does a short pre-show act to get the audience into the right frame of mind for things to work and then how he uses various suggestibility tests to convince some people to take part and also to get the audience on his side.

Various induction methods are then used, but Royle still has to use every trick in the book to make this show work which in the end he does like the true professional he is. As a video to watch at home this is probably the least entertaining, however as an education in Stage Hypnosis this title is one of the most valuable you will ever watch and learn from.
