

At the Table Live Lecture Chris Ramsay March 2nd 2016 video DOWNLOAD

We're glad to welcome Murphy's Magic Supplies' very own content producer, Chris Ramsay to an At the Table Experience! Chris is best known for his appearance on Wizard Wars and his ever growing social media platforms! A sleight-of-hand artist who brings his personalized aesthetic style to not only his routines but also to his branding and he'll be sharing all of his trade secrets with you. This being his very first lecture, Chris will take a look at past releases such as The Praxis Control (a very fooling card control), Slipshift (color change), Klepto (card Steal) but he's also brought some never before seen or published effects such as a clever and hilarious watch steal routine and fantastic opener for stage mentalism. Be sure to tune in for what is sure to be an unforgettable ATT Experience!
