

Emotional Drawing by Luca Volpe video DOWNLOAD

One of the most talked about routines from Luca Volpe's DVD "Sentimentalism" is now available as a single download!

Imagine giving the spectator the choice to draw anything on a blank business card which will be signed and lost in the middle of other business cards and then isolated in a opaque envelope.

Despite this impossible situation you will be able to reveal perfectly the spectator's drawing!

A perfect "test condition" experiment!

To perform the routine you will only require some blank business cards and an envelope; it is very easy to set up and can be repeated immediately. Perfect for close up and stage performances.

In the explanation you will also find a bonus presentation for stage performance.
