

At the Table Live Lecture Xavior Spade April 6th 2016 video DOWNLOAD

We start our April line up with one of New York's finest card handlers, Xavior Spade. If you haven't yet heard of him, your mind will be instantly changed when you see Xavior's proficiency with a deck. Co-Founder of Lost Art Magic and Sleight of hand teacher, Xavior is best known for his unbelievably clean controls, seamless card work and above all his theory of magic.

With a professional, performance background of about 20 years, he's bringing you his refined and detailed work straight from his personal chop library. Xavior has kept much of what he will teach a secret, known only to a select few in the inner circles of magic as an absolute beast, he divulges what should be some of the greatest invisible techniques. Touching on subjects like bottom palming, The Diagonal palm shift, Twisting the aces, Ambitious riser and also tackling some of his controversial thoughts on magic.

This show is going to be one for the knuckle-busters who want to step up their game and add some next-level cardwork that will seriously impress the toughest of critics.
