

Magofobia by Sandro Loporcaro (Amazo) video DOWNLOAD

In this video two revisited effects that Sandro Loporcaro has presented several times on television are explained. Both are suitable for close-up and presentable presentations in all situations:

SIGNED COIN IN SUGAR PACKET

One signed coin is covered with a scarf and disappears. The magician reaches into his pocket and pulls out 4 sugar packets numbered from 1 to 4. The audience freely chooses which numbered packet to open. The magician opens the chosen packet to amazingly find the signed coin.

- Easy to do
- No reel
- No magnet
- No wire
- No thumb tip

RISING CARD FROM WAISTCOAT POCKET

A chosen card is torn into pieces and a corner is left to the audience. The magician puts the other pieces in his waistcoat pocket and with a gesture removes the reassembled card in tact except for the missing corner.

- Easy to do
- No external thread to pull
- The card is always under your control
- No elastic
- The jacket can be opened before and after
- No electronic device
