

A Thought Stumbled Upon by Abhinav Bothra Mixed Media DOWNLOAD

A couple of people are invited to participate in a trick - any 4 of a kind gets chosen, one of the 4 cards is then given to Participant 1 by Participant 2. Participant 1 who has no knowledge of the card in his hand correctly deduces the suit and then the value of the card.

- Borrowed and shuffled deck
- No forces
- Easy to do

Note:

- This needs a table or a working surface
- A simple fact (stated twice in the patter) and the casualness of the performer is what makes this possible
- Included in here is the script (fully customizable) and a short video that explains the physical factors
