

The Jokker by VanBien video DOWNLOAD

A spectator chooses a card any card and signs it. That card is then put back randomly in the middle of the deck. The magician spreads the cards out face down and pulls out a joker from the card box. The joker is slid into the middle of the spread out cards face up. The magician flips the cards over and pulls out the only face down card. The card is flipped over to reveal the spectator's chosen signed card! The magician opens the card box and pulls out the original joker!

- Easy to make gimmick
- Easy to perform
- Very clean and visual
