Now you can leave your spectators a gift to remember you by. Joe has packed in a lot of magic in this download. He also teaches a version of Jumper which by its self is worth the price of the download! The Gift is a four-phase routine which starts by taking two rubber bands and instantly causing one of them to wrap itself around the other in the form of a bow. The bow then magically travels up and down a rubber ladder. The final two phases allow you to magically take the bow on and off the band. You then leave them with this wonderful souvenir as a gift to remember you by.
