

At The Table Live Lecture Chris Wood March 21st 2018 - Video - DOWNLOAD

A full time professional, Chris Wood is the creator and director of the highly successful "Close-Up @ The Magic Circle" show as well as The Magic Circle Foundation charity. With a focus on educating the public about magic as a performing art, Chris will now focus on teaching you how to improve your routines by applying performance theory and a deeper understanding of misdirection. His entertaining, clean, and natural performances are what makes Chris so exceptional and why many endorse his lectures as a masterclass. Please welcome Chris Wood *At The Table! Effects include:

The Bill Switch: An incredibly smooth bill switch that includes a discussion on developing rapport with your audience all while performing the impossible, right in front of their eyes!

Coins & Wand: Chris discusses the importance of misdirection while performing his seemingly effortless handling on a Three Coin Transpo.

Roulette: A unique, simple, and awe-inspiring version of card roulette that will blow your spectator's minds. Chris also discusses the importance of connecting with your audience with consistent responses.

Ambitious Aces: You've never seen anything like this version of Ambitious Aces, a regular routine in Chris's own working repertoire.

Twisting the Aces: Witness invisible sleight of hand techniques on this reverse Ambitious Aces routine.

...And more! Including lessons in refining pace and texture using everyday items, as well as lessons in structure and conveying personality with your audience.
