

KOUNTED by Kevin Parker video DOWNLOAD

KOUNTED is an impromptu card divination that looks incredible!

Divine the amount of cards randomly cut off the deck by you or the spectator without using stacks or gimmicks; no setup, totally impromptu.

The spectator even shuffles the deck beforehand. Borrowed deck.

Kevin Parker's system allows for this type of feat and many others.

- You're not cutting to predetermined spots; you can cut anywhere or let the spectator cut.
- No insertion of a crimped, cut, shaven, or altered card into the deck to mark a location; no setup whatsoever.
- No gimmicks or stacks or deck setup; borrow a deck, let them shuffle it, then instantly do it.
- Instantly repeatable/instant reset.
- 100% impromptu.
- Start and end totally clean.

As a finale, you sense what card is 14 cards down even though the deck has been shuffled and there are no markings on the deck; a strong indication of your psychic nature.

Everything you're doing looks and feels like you're actually psychic.

A totally impromptu, gimmick-free effect. It looks like you're demonstrating a powerfully sharp psychic sense. This is KOUNTED.
