Golden Ticket by Keelan Wendorf - Video - DOWNLOAD

Golden Ticket is the new take on the old Coin in Bread Roll concept. Today no one really sits down and enjoys a meal anymore, nor does anyone carry bread rolls in their pocket.

Imagine buying peanut butter cups from a vending machine, having the package examined, have a spectator sign a coin, and visually penetrate the coin through the packaging at your finger tips without any tears. The spectator then can open the packaging and select one of the cups. They will discover that their signed coin is found within the chocolate and peanut butter!
