DÈJÁ VÈCU is The Ultimate Card In Mouth...

Imagine the following. You put a card in your mouth. You hold the rest of the deck and the spectator selects and signs a card. You replace their card back in the deck and, in the blink of an eye, their signed card is now in your mouth!

There is more! The spectator then places their card in the middle of the deck, and immediately their signed card is back again in your mouth!

Very simple and can be repeated.
