It's well known that performing a 'Color Changing Card Under the Cellophane' effect is one of the most impossible card tricks for an audience - they are always astonished. Many of these effects, however, require gimmicks. But what if you could accomplish this amazing feat without using a gimmick? Well, now you can!

This is Camouflage.

Perform an eye-candy color changing, or unbelievable Torn and Restored effect, completely under the cellophane of a card box. The best part is, you can do this completely impromptu and with a borrowed deck!
