

Masterclass Vol.1 - eBook - DOWNLOAD

Although Magicseen Magazine is primarily a features publication rather than a tricks magazine, it does have two or three routines to learn included in the Masterclass section of each issue. In the first four years of publication, 61 contributions have appeared and these have now been collected together and are offered as a stand-alone publication.

There are contributions included from names such as Max Maven, Boris Wild, David Stone, Aldo Colombini, Wayne Dobson, Jay Sankey, Mathieu Bich, Marc Paul, Trevor Lewis, Joshua Jay and so many more. They have all provided a varied and interesting selection of material for you to enjoy.

Whether you are into close-up, mentalism or children's magic, there are items of interest for you here, and it's not until you see all the contributions collected together in one place, such as this, that you realize what a wealth of material has been made available.
