A clean, quick and practical ripped and restored card!

Perfect and practical for both live performances and all of your social media feeds!

From the mind of Arnel Renegado. A card is selected. The corner of the card is ripped off. The corner instantly vanishes from your hand and reappears attached back to the playing card it came from. The restored card can now be handed out for examination with no switches whatsoever.

- Easy to perform.
- Simple to construct.
- Fully examinable at the end of the routine!
