

Fast Exchange by Christophe Cusumano - Video - DOWNLOAD

Imagine the following. Your spectator freely selects and signs a card, and you lose the card in middle of the deck. Remove the two jacks, place them on top each other, and in a fraction of a second, the jacks change into the spectator's chosen card! Their card is then immediately returned to them for examination.

In this download, you will learn how to make your gimmick in 15 minutes!
