"Simply super strong magic"
- Juan Tamariz

"Dani is everything I love about magic."
- David Blaine

Dani DaOrtiz is one of the most recognized and sought-after magicians worldwide, performing regularly at the Magic Castle and a frequent lecturer and performer at many of the largest international magic conventions. A master of the quintessential Spanish Style of magic, he's traveled the world and worked with some of the most renowned magicians, such as David Blaine. Known for Utopia, Reloaded, Here and Now, Fat Brothers, and his classic Triple Intuition; Dani's unique methods and techniques continue to deceive everyone who witnesses them.

Now, Dani DaOrtiz shares his collection of "weapons" for the first time ever. Not only will you learn some fantastic tricks, but more importantly, he'll teach all the subtleties and techniques that makes his magic so impossible. Each idea in his "weapons" collection has countless applications and will provide never ending ammo for your magic repertoire.

This weapon is all about productions! Here Dani shares his techniques on producing cards from a borrowed deck, 4-of-a-kind thought of cards, or even selections. As you can imagine, the utility on having this in your repertoire will instantly elevate your card magic to the next level. Dani supplies you with different versions of his productions that covers the range from self-working to sleight of hand, so no what matter your experience level, you will find something new to add to your arsenal.

Along with his productions, Dani teaches his time-tested techniques that can be applied to more than just revelations. His hands-off approach makes it seem like nothing is happening, but as you'll soon find out, there is so much more going on! Dani is joined by Javier Natera and Javier Fuenmayor in an extensive jam session that ensures no stone is left unturned.

"Dani DaOrtiz performs real miracles"
