Imagine if you perform the mentalism trick but the spectator predicts the card of his choice

That's right! That's what you get

This trick is very successful in making your spectator believe that he has talent in mentalism.

The Spectator choose the card then after that we Take out a bowl full of small pieces of paper written with words and cards 1 to 52

Amazingly the audience will take 4 pieces of paper without looking

And when the pieces of paper are arranged one by one the words will appear

Words it will mention the spectator's chosen card

After matching the prediction is totally match

And the audience will be amazed.

And congratulations you have made your spectator a mentalist.
