

The Vault - The Fog by Arnel Renegado - Video - DOWNLOAD

A spooky reveal that happens with their water bottle and in their own hands!

You ask your spectator to choose any card they want. You borrow their bottled water and ask them to hold it between both hands. They see nothing on the bottle until an image slowly appears on the bottle -- it's their chosen card! And with a shake, the image vanishes. This can also be applied to letters or shapes. Many ways to incorporate this stunning revelation principle.
