

Fleeting Currency by Salvador Molano - Video - DOWNLOAD

A case and a deck is shown, a spectator chooses a card freely and signs it, this is lost in the deck and this is introduced into the case and closed this, a coin is signed by a spectator and deposited on the table, the coin is rubbed by the case and this vanishes visually and magically, the case is shown on both sides, and no trace of the coin. the mallet is taken out of the case and cut by a spectator, just in the cut given by the spectator a coin is seen, it is the coin previously signed by the spectator, the card is shown below the coin and it is the card signed by another spectator, now all the cards are shown.

The ingenious gimmick does all the work for you

Download now!