

ART OF SILENCE by ROMNICK TAN BATHAN - Video - DOWNLOAD

Your spectator picks a random card and you are going to find it. She looks at the faces of the cards before you slide them across the table, the magician cannot see the cards but instructs the spectator to stop him when she sees her card and to place her hand on the card. The magician casts his spell and now he magically has her thought of card in his hand and the card she thought was under her hand is now a completely different card.

- No break
- No force
