Three phases

Three Spectators

Three Business Cards

Mind reading, Prediction and Psychometry.

Trident is a tried and tested mentalism/psychic entertainment routine I've worked to death for years, using nothing more than three business cards and a pen.

In this 31-page manuscript, I teach my favourite close-up three-phase routine which demonstrates mind reading, prediction and Psychometry/Psychological profiling, and includes an additional shorter bonus version called "Trident 2.0". Two variations of the same routine are included, the first for those who prefer the metaphysical or psychic approach to mentalism and the second for those who favour the science in action, or body language/psychology approach.

Each version (and the bonus routine) Includes full descriptions of the props and methods but more importantly the psychology behind each stage.

"The level of subtlety is simply impressive, as he's left nothing to chance. A no-brainer. Well done Scott."- Phedon Bilek

"This is a killer routine that uses just a few business cards and a pen. Need I say more? It's from Scott: GET IT!!"- Greg Arce

"I've gone through Trident and I never fail to smile at how much mileage you always can get out of simple ideas. It is like a full show in itself, with a nice 3 phase build."- Nique Tan

"As a long-time student of your work, I marvel at how your routines continue to become increasingly simplified in props and handling, yet somehow more powerful in effect. Well done, Scott. I look forward to performing this."- Bill O'Connell

"Scott - you are in the elite group of thinkers/creators/performers who I instantly purchase any release offered. Three business cards, a pen, three minds and genuine human connection - doesn't get any better than that!"- Drew Backenstoss

"Trident is pure gold. I enjoy these kinds of routines and will definitely be putting this to use, get your copy now. A great value that you will use."- Don Rigsby
