

Float in Air Anywhere by Salvador Molano Olivera - Video - DOWNLOAD

You place a small carpet onto the ground. You take off your shoes and immediately... you start to float!

Look under your feet and you can clearly see that you are levitating.

You float back to the ground, stand on your feet and put your shoes back on and roll up the carpet and walk away leaving no clue to the mystery.

This is a modern take on an old principle that you will love to build and perform.
