

The Vault - Cap and Ball by Sultan Orazaly - Video - DOWNLOAD

An impossible visual transposition!

Take the cap off of your sharpie pen and watch it morph in real time into a red ball. There is nothing else in your hand but the ball. The ball is placed into your other hand where it instantly changes back into the sharpie cap and is replaced on the pen.

A great introduction, call back or interlude to your sponge ball routine.

Easy to make and perform.
