Introducing New Spellbound by Giacomo Bertini

I am very happy to present this New Spellbound routine!

The main feature of this method is that it allows you to repeat the transformation again and again, creating a continuous and highly visual sequence of changes.

The method is very easy to perform and is based on one of the approaches explained in my book Giacomo Bertini's System for Amazement. I developed this handling to make the transformations practical, direct, and suitable for real close-up performances.

The result is a highly visual Spellbound sequence that can be repeated several times in succession, while keeping the handling simple and natural.
