

Starving Monkey - Bicycle

This best seller was finally made with the Bicycle cards by USPCC!

Four cards are shown: one has the drawing of a monkey, while the others of a bunch of bananas. The monkey is placed over a bunch, but she's tremendously greedy, so she eats it all, leaving the card completely blank. The same thing happens, from time to time, with all the bunches: all the bananas are eaten and cards are left to be totally blank. In the end the monkey will be excessively grown fat!

- Easy to do, high impact on the audience.
- Amazing card magic effect where various illusions occur the one after the other, culminating in an unexpected funniest conclusion.
