

The Fugitive

The magician shows a chain made of many rings. Suddenly, one ring starts falling down from the top, crossing all the rings that it finds during its fall, until the magician grabs it at the end of the chain.

An incredible close-up effect that you will love!

- Suitable for any kind of audience.
- The chain is about 48 cm long (19").
- Automatic and very easy to do. It can be repeated immediately.
- It can all be given out for examination. There's nothing to hide!
