

Spoon Bending

The magician shows a metal spoon that he holds horizontally between his fingers. After a moment of concentration he begins to slowly bend it on itself, using the energy of his mind. Gradually the spoon will take the form of a "U" and, handed out to the audience for examination.

You receive two teaspoons, one special and one normal for the final inspection.