

Three Card Monte

Two red cards and a black card are shown, and placed face down on the table. The magician slowly mixes the cards. The spectator tries to find the winning red card, but fails. This is repeated for other two times always more slowly, but the red card can never be found!

No sleight of hand required.