

Sexy Surprise

Three sponge balls, one at a time, magically jump from the performer's hand to the hand of a spectator, then they fly from his pocket to his hand in a wonderful succession of magical effects.

At the end the magician puts the three balls in a female spectator's hand and asks her to think of something "different", that is interesting for her. After a magical gesture, when she opens her hand the three sponge balls will have changed into a sexy surprise!

A fun effect intended for an adult audience!
