

Rabbits in love

The magician shows two sponge rabbits, stating that one is a male and the other a female and he places them inside the hand of a spectator. Thereafter the rabbits will know each other and, when the spectator reopens the hand, she will be amazed in finding a nice family of eight small rabbits.