

Technicolor Cups & Color Changing Balls by NMS - Trick

The Cups & Balls is one of the oldest tricks in magic. It has many routines and variations. It is also the mother of many modern effect: Chop Cups, Three Shell Game, Paper Wads Thru Hat, etc... Many well-known magicians feature this trick in their shows.

The multi-color feature in this set adds a little to the effect besides an elegant look. It is easier for the spectators to keep track of the cups, which one is going where. Therefore, the magic looks much neater and easier to follow and understand.

The effect requires a considerable amount of practice to make it perfect. We describe a basic routine to get you started. More elaborate and interesting routines (which are beyond the scope of instruction) are available in the magic market. We can assure you that the routine given with this product is a professional one and is extremely entertaining if performed properly.
