

Magic Cookie

The magician opens a packet of biscuits and eats one. He then picks up another and gives it a bite. The spectators are clearly shown the biscuit with a big bite in it. The magician then blows on the biscuit and instantly and visibly makes it become whole again!

- Carry it always around and astonish young and old!
- The effect does not require a table, so it is perfect for walk around magic.