

Bite Card Bicycle

The magician says that he really likes playing cards, he likes them so much that... occasionally he eats them like biscuits! The spectators will be amused by this funny statement but will then be surprised when the magician actually takes a big bite out of the card ripping a piece away from it with his teeth. Then they will be amazed when, with a magic blow he instantly and visually restores the bitten card!

Visual and funny!

- Very easy to do.
