

This is another one

The Magician shows a red silk. He pushes it into his fist and announces that it has vanished. But the audience will complain "It's still in your hand!" ... "Yes, I have still a silk, but it is another one" says the magician, but the audience will not be convinced until the magician opens his hand and shows that one silk there is now written in bold letters: "THIS IS ANOTHER ONE".

So funny!!!

- A regular 9" silk; a 9" printed silk and a thumb tip are included.
