

Off World (Gimmick and Online Instructions) by JP Vallarino - Trick

From the creative mind of JP Vallarino comes the most revolutionary version of Out of This World you will ever perform!

Imagine taking a classic plot in magic and breaking it down into what really makes it special. Throw out all the procedure, get rid of all that long drawn out dealing, do away any packet switching. What you are left with is a trick that instantly hits hard in the first 10 seconds. What you are left with is nothing short of a miracle. What you are left with is JP Vallarino's Offworld!

Offworld is the first-ever Out of this World routine that can be performed entirely FACE UP! It means never again having to wait until the end to start getting reactions in real time. You start building it up from the very beginning!

Your spectator calls out the color of the next card and they are effortlessly correct 100% of the time! They couldn't fail even if they tried! (unless of course, if you really wanted them to).

It's more than just another "Look at me!" effect. Your spectators make all the decisions freely and fairly, and they produce the impossible. With Offworld, your spectators create the miracle!
