

Oh So Juicy (Gimmick and Online Instructions) by Brandon David and Chris Turchi - Trick

"Amazing visuals! Years ago I would've said this HAD to be a camera trick. Bringing magic to the next level. Killer."

- Justin Flom

From the creative minds of Brandon David and Chris Turchi comes an effect so clean and visual that you'll fool yourself in the mirror over and over again. Imagine being able to take a normal pack of gum and make the wrapper disappear right in front of your spectators' eyes. This is the routine you open your walk around gigs with: it's hyper visual, easy to do, and will have your spectators chewing for more.

- Gimmick comes fully made and ready to perform
- Really good effect for your social media
- Easy to perform
- An organic object
- Hand out the gum pieces to your spectators

It's not just any gum magic, it's Oh So Juicy!

"Practical visual magic with everyday objects that packs a serious punch! For close up and strolling I couldn't think of anything better!"

- William Draven

"If you're looking for a tasty eye popping opener, look no further! Oh So Juicy is my new go to gum effect! You blow their minds with the visualness of the pack vanishing and then tell them to chew on it a while, while handing them some gum. Sharing is caring! Love this!"

- Steven Himmel

"So visual! So fun! THIS is pretty damn SWEET!"

- Eric Ross
