

Clonk 3 by Roman Garcia and Martin Andersen

Reputation maker. FISM and Backpool BESTSELLER. As seen on TV. "If the best version of Copenetro and Misers Dream had a child, it would be Clonk³".

Clonk³ is a magic trick in which three coins magically travel (one by one) to a bucket that is held by a person's hands.

Every time the coin reaches the bucket, people will hear a coin is dropped inside the bucket.

It's not a sound effect, the coins really appear inside!

The last coin, which was signed by the spectator, also travels to the bucket and at the end the three coins are found inside the bucket.

Shocking and impressive...

Clonk³ is quite an experience and the audience will remember this magic trick forever.

With Clonk³ you will have access to four complete routines all with different handling's. You can perform the one that best suits you, or create your own routine!

In trailer section you can see Clonk³ performed by a famous magician on prime time television in Spain. This routine is not included on the explanation videos, but you will notice how versatile the gimmick is and the routines you can create.

"Fantastic! A perfect 'miser's dream' trick. The best part is the magic trick is performed in the spectator's hands!"

- Juan Mayoral

"Final miser's dream. We've always dreamed with this magic trick and it finally came true. Blessed technology, blessed ingenuity, and damned Roman García who has revolutionized again coins magic."

- Luis Piedrahita

"All magicians who have done the miser's dream trick have wanted to get rid of the bucket, but finally we can do it thanks to Román García's ingenuity. Thank you so much."

- Miguel Ángel Gea

"Business could be magical, magic could be creative, and creativity could be memorable. We can find all of these attributes in Clonk³, for the price of one. Thanks Román for being creatively commercial and memorably magical."

- José Castiñeiras

"If the best copenetro version and miser's dream had a child, it would be Clonk³."

- Kiko Pastur

"For STREET guys I can't think of no other or better way to quickly get a crowd over and over. You can hear the CLONK like a Liberty Bell!"

- Jonathan Todd

FAQ

- Where can I perform Clonk³?

Clonk³ is a versatile magic trick that you can perform in a crowded place. Theater, street, close-up, etc. You can perform this magic trick at any place. You can adapt this magic trick in any situation according to your magic routine.

- What kind of coins do I need?

For stage version, the most suitable would be dollar coins like the Eisenhower dollar coins. This type of coin can produce a thunderous sound, so the audience can hear it when the coin is dropped inside the bucket. In a close-up version, the most suitable would be half dollar coins like the Kennedy ones. Clonk³ can be performed with both types of coins. In fact, you can use any type of coin that is smaller than Eisenhower size (38.1mm / 1.5in diameter, 2.54mm / 0.1 in thick) but magnetic coins are not recommended as they can get stuck to the gimmick. Coins are NOT included.

- What kind of bucket do I need?

You can use any bucket for Clonk³, even your own! But one is provided is very nice and makes a great sound when the coins drop inside.

- Can the magician control the travel of each coin?

Yes, the magician can control the trick at any moment and make each coin appear being far from the spectator, without any help, and hands are always visible.

- Can I perform other routines?

Yes, you can create your own routines, develop new and magical miser's dream versions or close-up versions (similar to a copenetro trick, but without a table or any platform) in which you can show the coins any time the coin travels to the bucket. You can even use a spectator's ring... Your limit is your imagination...

- What is included?

You get the special gimmick and the bucket. You can use your own coins.
