

Drink Card KIT for Astonishing Bottle by João Miranda and Ramon Amaral - Erweiterung

This is a amazing routine that can be used with the Astonishing Bottle, based on the McCombial Prediction plot.

The performer predicts a drink that is inside a brown paper bag. The spectator, standing behind the performer, now must select a card from an entirely different deck - hopefully matching the drink inside the bag.

The audience can see that the cards from which the spectator must select their drink consist of duplicates of the prediction that is inside the paper bag. The spectator is now invited to select any card after the magician moves the cards one at a time from the top to the bottom of the deck. The audience is laughing since they can see that all the cards are the same. The spectator calls out the name of the chosen card (Coke) and the audience is shocked to hear that the selected card is NOT the same as the prediction, which is a bottle of Fanta that is inside the paper bag.

However, the magician makes a magical pass and removes from the bag a bottle of Coke!

Of course, the audience still thinks that the Fanta is inside the bag.

The bag is torn apart, and the audience is amazed to discover that the bottle of Fanta is gone!

This is a great addition to your existing Astonishing Bottle routine.

Comes complete with the card set and instructions (Astonishing Bottle sold separately). Orange Fanta bottle not included.
