

Free Drinks by Peter Kamp - Flüssigkeit verwandeln - Zaubertrick

After the worldwide success of Infinity Wine, Peter Kamp has become in a few months a creator to watch! His interpretation of water turned into wine has literally won over international magicians and audiences from all walks of life.

Did you like Infinity Wine? You will love his new creation: FREE DRINKS.

Imagine having the power to transform water ON DEMAND, into syrup of grenadine, mint, lemon (yellow) or orange ... And even ... In cola! It's such a miracle that you have to see it to believe it.

You pour water into a glass, which you then drink through a straw. The spectators then have the choice of the drink, which you will then reveal! You can even perform 3 transformations in a row!

Perfect on stage or for parlor shows, for children or for adults, under the eyes of the spectators in real conditions of performance, but also great to create viral content on social networks! Free Drinks ticks all the boxes for a real magic trick, usable in many conditions. The reset is quick, practical, and easy to use thanks to the gimmicks provided.

A real asset for workers. The cleverly gimmicked glass does (almost) all the work for you! ABSOLUTELY EVERYTHING IS INCLUDED so that you can quickly achieve incredible performance.

If you are more focused on mentalism experience, you will also be able to transform water into a drink mentally chosen by the viewer or forced by you; the ways of presenting Free Drinks are numerous and so varied!

Strong points:

- You can pour water into the glass between each transformation.
- Ultra visual.
- Very easy to do.
- Can be activated on command.
- Quick and practical preparation and reset.
- Feasible in many situations.
- No change.

- Refills included.
- Explanatory video in French with the creator.
