Miser's Dream by DiFatta - Coin Bucket - Münztrick

The performer catches a coin from thin air and drops it into a steel glass. He then goes on catching coins one after another from nowhere. Audience witness the coins dropping into the glass and also hear the sound of them falling inside. After producing a considerable amount of coins the performer pretends to throw the coins to the audience. But nothing comes out from inside the the glass. All the coins have vanished.

A classic of magic!
