

The Medusa Project Blue (Gimmicks and Online Instructions) by Perseus Arkomanis

What if you could turn objects into actual stone?

With the Medusa Project you are given the ability to do so...

A deck of cards, a Sharpie marker and a lighter transform into stone at your fingertips.

The Medusa Project is a 10 year old miracle in the making from the mind of Perseus Arkomanis.

The routines included range from using all three items to using only a couple of them or even one of that at a time. The structure of the routines is designed in a way that your spectators won't even consider there was a switch involved. The objects petrify as if the Gorgon herself laid her gaze on them.

All props are handmade, treated and checked to guarantee the highest quality.

The package comes with everything you need to petrify your audiences.
